

DIRECTOR – OFFICE DIVISION

Savills Ireland is one of Ireland's leading property specialists, delivering a full range of transactional and consultancy property services across the island of Ireland. Structured into 10 business units, the company is a market leader in most segments in which it operates. A trusted and highly credible brand, Savills now seeks to grow its offer in a key market segment that offers strong future growth.

The Role

Reporting to the Managing Director you will be able to demonstrate a capacity to develop and manage strong commercial relationships with key international contacts. The ability to seek out and drive to deliver on commercial opportunities is essential. Savills possesses an entrepreneurial culture and the appointee will be a person who flourishes in an autonomous environment with strong commercial ethos and results orientation.

The Person

Key components of the successful candidate will be a comprehensive knowledge of the domestic / international property market from a selling, letting and development perspective as well as a proven track record in business and client development. You will be a strong leader of people who is capable of managing a team to meet and exceed performance objectives. You will also display a proven ability at leveraging internal relationships for the purpose of business growth. You will be rewarded with a Salary and Benefits package commensurate with a role of this level and strategic importance.

Working in an organisation that holds ethical behaviour and professional conduct as sacrosanct, the challenge will be to operate as part of a fast paced team, be capable of performing at a high level whilst committing to an ethos of continuous personal and professional development.

If you feel you are ready for this type of challenge and would like to apply, please email an up to date CV and cover letter to jason.denman@savills.ie or post to Savills, HR Department, 32 Molesworth Street, Dublin 2, Ireland. Alternatively, if you would like to discuss this position in the strictest confidence please call Jason Denman, Head of HR on +353 1 618 1343.