

VALUATIONS SURVEYOR - DUBLIN

Savills is recruiting a Valuations Surveyor to work in our Dublin Office. Our Professional Services department has a reputation for providing outstanding quality and professional advice across an array of services including valuations for commercial lending, group valuations, rent reviews, compulsory purchase and all areas of professional work. We are looking for an experienced Valuer to add to our existing market leading professional team.

The ideal candidate will be:

- A qualified member of the SCS or RISC etc
- Have at least three years post qualification experience in the commercial property environment (either in Ireland or abroad)
- Have solid commercial valuations experience
- Be capable of working on own initiative and be looking to progress their career with quality experience
- Have excellent communication and interpersonal skills and be anxious to develop as a key team member
- Be enthusiastic, energetic and professional in their approach to valuation work

The remuneration package for this role will be competitive and will reflect the candidate's qualifications and experience.

You will have a thorough knowledge and appreciation of key issues influencing the market combined with an excellent understanding of relevant legislation and planning laws. The right candidate will have drive and ambition and should be capable of working on their own initiative. You should be highly pro-active, with a desire to provide the best commercial agency advice and service in the Irish commercial market.

Working in an organisation that holds ethical behaviour and professional conduct as sacrosanct, the challenge will be to operate as part of a fast paced team, be capable of performing at a high level whilst committing to an ethos of continuous personal and professional development.

If you feel you are ready for this type of challenge and would like to apply, please email an up to date CV and cover letter to Karen.loughrey@savills.ie or post to Savills, 32 Molesworth Street, Dublin 2, Ireland.

All internal applicants are requested to advise their Manager of their intention to apply.
